

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Dr. Jeremy Baham is the Associate/Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs at Mississippi State University since 2016. In this role he has direct oversight of University Health Services, Longest Student Health Center, the Student Counseling Center, the Office of Student Well-Being, University Recreation, the Office of Survivor Support, the Disability Resource Center and the Center for America's Veterans.

Jeremy also has administrative oversight for university functions related to the operation of the Army and Air Force ROTC programs at Mississippi State. Prior to this position he was the Associate Dean of Students at Mercer University and later Mississippi State University.

Dr. Baham earned his Ed.D. in Higher Education Administration from the University of Alabama and his Master of Arts degree in Community Counseling from the University of North Alabama. Along with his position in the Division of Student Affairs, Dr. Baham teaches in the Educational Leadership graduate program at Mississippi State, most recently teaching Administrative Leadership within Higher Education and College Student Well-Being.